

Librarians' Day

Librarians' Day was celebrated at SVCR Govt. Degree College to honor the valuable contribution of librarians in the field of education and knowledge management. The day highlights the importance of librarians in guiding students towards the right sources of information and developing reading habits.

On this occasion, students and faculty expressed their gratitude to the librarian for maintaining the library and supporting academic activities. The program included speeches, awareness talks, and discussions on the role of libraries in the digital era.

The celebration emphasized that librarians are the backbone of educational institutions, helping students gain knowledge and succeed in their academic journey.
